

How are you today? | Overview

Exploring individual experiences in remote working during the COVID19 pandemic.

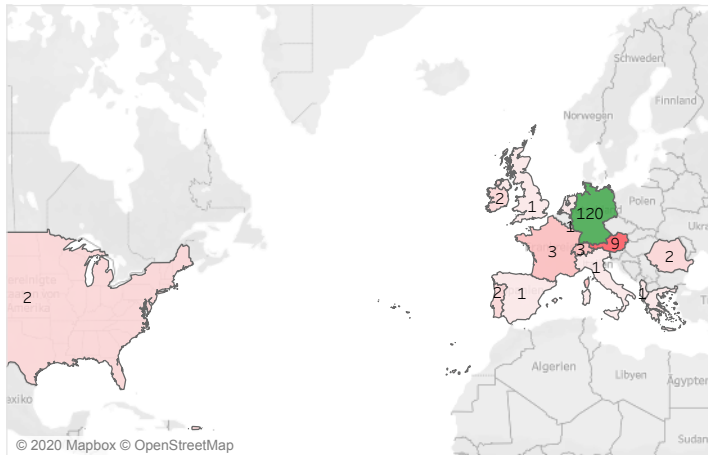

This project seeks to generate insights on working from home and individual well-being during the COVID19 pandemic. This dashboard will be regularly updated, expanded with new insights and professionalized.

In total 155 people have contributed to the study so far.

Gender of Participants

Location of Participants

Age Distribution

Living Situation

53% participants hold a Master's degree or diploma. 14% have a PhD.

Most participants work in the IT industry (28%) or in automotive (12%)

The average household size is 2,6.

Pet Situation

/ 8 participants have a dog
/ 6 participants have a cat
/ 1 has fish and 1 has a guinea pig

If you work from home, what does your workplace look like?

How well are you prepared to work from home?

I feel well prepared for the time in the home office.

My employer provides the necessary technical infrastructure for home office.

My employer is well prepared for home office measures.

